

Franklin Otis

Berkeley, California

Franklin_otis@berkeley.edu.com

(682) 552-9229

Education

University of California, Berkeley, California

Master of Development Practice

Expected May 2022

Soongsil University, Seoul, Republic of Korea

Semester Abroad: Economics, History, Korean

University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma

Bachelor of Arts in Economics and History (double major) with minor in Computer Science

Graduated May 2016

Experience

Equity Economics Lab – San Francisco, CA

Policy research intern, Summer 2021

Researched labor rights issues

Wrote policy briefs for state and local political advocacy

University of California, Berkeley – Berkeley, CA

Graduate student instructor, January 2021 – December 2021

Crafted lesson plans

Tutored students

Epic Systems Corporation – Madison, WI

Technical solutions engineer, July 2016 – June 2020

Advised hospital billing departments with solutions to technical and logistical problems

Guided large-scale software implementation

Skills

Impact evaluation

Proficiency with programming in R, Java, M, C++

Project management

Client management

Basic Spanish language

Leadership

President of Economics Club

Organized weekly lecture meetings

Provided help to economics students

Secretary, OU Student Association for Computing Machinery

Planned and executed Computer Science Department special events

Advised and tutored computer science students

Member of University of Oklahoma Historical Journal Editorial Board

Advised selection of undergraduate essays